● I Can Work! in the News

Congrats to Angie Mahoney, author of I Can Work: A Work Skills Curriculum for Special Needs Programs for the recognition she has received as a special education teacher helping her students learn vocational skills. Most recently she was featured in an article in the Danbury \(CT\) News Times.

Angie works hard to get her message out about the importance of work skills in the school setting. Her Program has been well received in Connecticut and throughout New England. Now, she, in collaboration with Robyn Chu, an occupational therapist, will be presenting it to a national audience at the upcoming annual meeting of the Council for Exceptional Children \(CEC\) in San Diego, CA on April 9, 2015. Their talk, entitled Pre-Vocational Training: When Should I Start and Who Can Help Me? will describe I Can Work from the perspectives of teacher and occupational therapist. You can find out more information at icanwork.therapro.com.
