• The Lazy, Hazy Days of Summer!

Warm summer days seem to pull us outside like a magnet, especially here in the Northeast. Kids love being outdoors and don't need much more than friends, a ball, and a dog. A few simple ingredients and — voila — FUN! But what if the forecast says "rain" or there's a boring car trip ahead?

On a rainy day at home, we want to get kids up and moving and add some heavy work. You can build an obstacle course using a Peek A Boo Tunnel, Hand and Feet Markers and Jumbo Arrows. Add Bean Bag Rock and Roll for some lively musical fun! Create-A-Scene Magnetic Sets are great to spread out on the floor for hours of play. The Wobble Deck is a complete balance activity all by itself. You can't beat a Kozie-Sac for some heavy work.

In the car, Fine Motor and Perceptual activities will keep kids from getting fidgety. An all time favorite, the Colorforms Silly Faces game, is fun and a great choice. Other good choices for the car or a rainy day are Wikki Stix Rainy Day Fun Play Kit, String Along Lacing Kit, and Origami Fun Kit for Beginners. Our 2 Marble Mazes are quiet fidgets that are small, cannot come apart and can easily be packed away.

If you are looking for low cost activities that utilize things around the house consider our own Second Hand Therapies and Sensational Fun. Both feature activities for year round including indoor, outdoor and rainy day play. (See sample cards from Second Hand Therapies and sample cards from Sensational Fun.)
